WASHINGTON

MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 8.

AFRICA .-- A most interesting lecture was last night delivered at the Fourth Presbyterian church by the Rev. Mr. GURLEY, on Africa, as a field for missionary labors. Mr. Gurley's knowledge of every thing relating to Africa, his earnest and heartfelt devotion to the cause of Colonization, and the benevolent spirit that evidently controls his every impulse, render highly instructive and entertaining any remarks from him in relation to this dark and comparatively unknown land. We cannot but believe that were he to travel throughout our whole country, and address the people of every locality upon this his favorite theme, great good would be done for Africa, and for our own country also.

We read with attention the weekly newspaper conducted by Mr. Gurley and Mr. Goodloe, and receive it as the most welcome guest that visits our home—as the best family newspaper we have ever had the good fortune to peruse; and while anger, strife and danger are being continually developed by the disturbance of the slavery question, and while good men are being hurried into intemperate extremes, on both sides, the Christian Statesman and its cause appear to our view as a rainbow of promise and harbinger of peace.

NEWSPAPERS AND GREAT MEN .- One of the most pleasant, social, chatty, spunky and agreeable journals we daily encounter is the Philadelphia Sun; but we perceive it has condescended to politics rather too much of late. Mr. Fillmore, however, has no reason to regret this, for it has done him good and substantial service. We have heard in conversation, that in response to the suggestion that he should make to it some sort of acknowledgment for its voluntary kind services to him, he expressed himself very kindly toward its editors, and said he hoped this could be done, especially as its wide circulation seemed to demand at least a portion of the public patronage; but that when Mr. Hall and Mr. Corwin were approached, they showed their teeth, growled like two old bears, and dismissed the subject. Never mind, little Sunny, your power is much greater than theirs, and, it may prove, of much longer duration. We have heard thousands of complaints of the churlish. ungrateful, arrogant and pompous conduct of members of the present Cabinet toward modest, honest and worthy men, who have had occasion to come into their august presence; but never once have we heard of Mr. Fillmore's exhibiting aught but the kindness and suavity of the true gentleman, or of the feelings of the humblest suitor being even inadvertently wounded by a word from his lips. There are men in his Cabinet for whom the people of our country entertain very great admiration; but for Mr. Fillmore, Mr. Conrad, and Mr. Graham, they who know them more intimately feel the warmest friendship and the most ardent and affectionate respect.

A SAD FELLOW .- The neighborhood of N and Twelfth streets was entertained yesterday forenoon by a voluntary display of instructive eloquence! The orator was a poor, unhappy and pesotted man, whom drunkenness has brought down from his high estate, and rendered a disturber of the peace and a scandal to the neighborhood in which he lives. When the bells were tolling to church, he brought forth his bottle and his Bible, and after looking into the former for his inspiration, he read a portion of the latter, accompanying it with a running commentary of profanity and blasphemy. He of course has too much knowledge and wisdom to believe any thing this book contains, and has the most sovereign contempt and hatred for those who do. He not unfrequently raves like a maniac about the neighborhood for the greater part of a night, even when exposed to the cold rain, exciting the apprehensions of the neighbors for both him and themselves. We have his already magnificent residence. He is have Vork. This route is now fully opened, and heard of such men's being taken into safe keep- ing an additional brick wing attached, with meets with general favor.

A WARNING .- Quite a genteel-looking young girl, while making some purchases at Brown's dry good store, on the Avenue, last Saturday night, slipped a piece of calico under her arm and walked off with it. She had not gone far before she was overtaken, but minus the calico. She was conducted to the watch-house, where some consultation was had upon the subject, when she agreed to pay for the abstracted piece of goods, and with many promises of doing better in future was released, Mr. B. not wishing to prosecute her further. A House of Correction is much needed in this city.

ANOTHER CASE IN POINT .- A day or two ago, while passing along the outskirts of the city, we were accosted by a very pretty, interesting little girl, about eight or ten years old, with "Mr., let me sell you some of this lace. Mother wants to buy brother a pair of shoes, and she has not money enough to get them. Oh, please buy some!" We could not but pity the little miss, although there was nothing in her looks to excite sympathy, for she was clad well and looked well. On looking into her basket, we noticed that she had a few yards of thread lace (which she said she had knit herself) and a pair of little worsted gaiters. Having no use for either of these articles, we declined purchasing, when she asked, "Can't you give me something, then ?" We looked again, and seeing her countenance lit up with hope, and a smile pervading her face, we placed a little gift in her hand, which greatly elated her. And so we passed on, but not without an earnest wish that she might escape from the dangers before her!

RE OLIVER P. BALDWIN. - The talented, acmond Republican has been requested by the joint bors. letter of some forty or fifty citizens of Richmond to become a candidate for the State Legislature; but declines in a handsomely written letter, assigning as a reason the fact that he has not had the legally required fixed residence in that city.

BEGINNING AGAIN!-A bonfire was got up a little way northward from the President's house last night, and "der machines" were got out, the result of which was that Captain Goddard had a couple of young men before him for riotous behaviour. We regret that we have not published in Boston, says the New York Herald, know better, and says that Legrand Smith and the purpose of engaging the Bavarian exile to come to the United States, and travel through the country, under the management of Barnum; but that Lola made some inquiries about the historical reminiscences of Barnum, beginning with Joyce Heath, and ending, probably, with the Fire Annihilator, and she declared positively that Mr. Barnum should not have her services, for he was too much of a humbug. Meantime, says the Herald, according to the best and most reliable intelligence we could obtain in Paris, Lola Montes comes to this country on her own hook," and has engaged Mr. Edward Willis, brother of N. P. Willis, to be her principal manager and secretary. Lofty position this, for the great Edward Willis!

CORRECT THE BLUNDERERS .- A week ago we stated the fact that the British and French governments had issued orders to their warvessels to cruise along the coast of the United States in pursuit of expeditions against Cuba, &c. Some gentleman, in office, who does up the Washington semi-official telegraph despatches for the New York Herald, has just given the same important intelligence, by telegraph, to the Herald and the public, as something new.

Mr. Nathaniel Greer has a letter in Saturday's New York Herald about the Donaldson Mr. Hallett some incorrect things, as follows:

"I regret, however, that it was published, wing to the Whiggish position since taken by Mr. Hallett, who was warmed into life by the Democratic party."

Now, Mr. Hallett has not for ten years past taken anything like a Whiggish position. He is an ultra Democrat all the time. In the next place, he was not "warmed into life by the Democratic party." Not a bit of it. In his early manhood he was a Whig editor, violently opposed to the day. Exciting times, these. Democratic party. He next turned Anti-Mason, and then a full-blooded Democrat.

Be more careful in your historical and biographical facts, Mr. Greer.

The intelligent "Ion," of the Baltimore Sun, talks about John S. Oale, a member of the late or the other.' Congress from Pennsylvania, being a candidate for the appointment of Charge d'Affaires to Denmark, and thinks his chance is good to Doings of the Temperance Folks .- There was a clever rally of the cold-water army at the and this is not neutrality. City Hall yesterday afternoon, and a finer spirit prevailed than ever old Monongahela itself could produce. A. F. Cunningham, J. C. Harkness, Christopher Cammack and Gen. Savage made excellent speeches, and as strong as fourth-proof cogniac. There were present several hundred respectable-looking and attentive listeners; and everything seemed to indicate that the judicious and popular law recently passed by the City Councils, and approved by the Mayor, had given renewed courage and energy to the friends of temperance.

At night, the subject of the duties of housekeepers with reference to this law was discussed country bears generally a prosperous aspect. at Temperance Hall by Gen. Savage and George R. Pleasants, esq., of this city, and Mr. Manner, fest.

Connecticut brown stone bay windows, in gothic style. Mr. Emery is the contractor, and R. H. Lee the setter. The ground in rear of the house is also being laid off and fitted up for the purpose of having a fine garden of flowers and shrubbery. There are also in the course of construction hot and cold graperies for raising grapes and flowers. A peep into his carriagehouse cannot fail to please the curious. The whole is being handsomely enclosed by a brick wall some six or eight feet high.

Of Mr. Emery, en passant, we may here remark, that $1,180,000, and not $1,780,000, should have been given as his bid for the marble work at the Capitol.

"THE LADIES OF THE COVENANT."-This is the title of a volume of memoirs of "distinguished Scottish female characters, embracing the period of the Covenant and the Persecution." It is by Rev. James Anderson, of Edinburgh, and republished by Redfield, Clinton Hall, New York, 1851.

The period of time here designated comprehends the reigns of James VI, Charles I, Charles II, and James VII. Woman's affection, her piety, her faith, and her heroism, are not only well set forth, but a clear and familiar portraiture is given of an eventful and momentous epoch in the history of an influential branch of the Christian church, and of its devotion to civil and religious liberty. Whether as imparting a knowledge of the anxieties and sorrows that invaded the domestic circles of "the Dissenters," and gave fuel to the flame of liberty in each breast, or as an attractive introduction to the history of those stormy times, this volume is equally interesting. The research of the author has been laborious and minute; and the world will long thank him for complished, and estimable co-editor of the Rich- the entertaining and profitable results of his la-

A BEAUTIFUL PARLOR Rug.-The worsted parlor rug, having on its surface a noble specimen of the royal tiger, in a lying posture, attracted much attention at the store of Messrs. Clagett, Newton, May, & Co., on Saturday. It is a superior and novel work of art, and is one of the curiosities lately on exhibition at the World's Fair.

Do not forget to see the Panorama, &c., obtained their names. Do they wish for more at Temperance Hall. Go, and take your wife

Will American Ladies patronise her? The Great Concert To-Night.—An intelli-Originating in some Paris correspondence gent correspondent and good critic writes us: "I had recently the pleasure of listening to the newspapers have been stating that Barnum a rehearsal of the Columbia Musical Associahad engaged Lola Montes, the great European tion, preparatory to their instrumental Concert, socialist in petticoats, and beautiful Bavarian to be given this evening at Carusi's Saloon. I exile, to come to the United States, and dance learn that they have engaged, at great expense, some republican dances, and get up a new edi- the assistance of several of the best professors tion of the Jenny Lind furore. But Barnum of music in Baltimore. The Association have denies this, and says that applications were received from Europe a splendid bass-viol, made to him from Lola Montes, through her which they consider the best now in the United agent in Paris, but they were peremptorily de- States. The Concert this evening will be their clined. The Herald, however, professes to first one this season, and, judging from their success during last winter, and their recent Lola Montes had entered into a negotiation, for preparations, it will, no doubt, fulfil the most sanguine expectations of the lovers of music. Let all go; none will be disappointed."

ANTHBACITE COAL IN VIRGINIA .- We, learn with pleasure from the Richmond Republican that anthracite coal of an excellent quality has been discovered on the lands of J. Marshall M'Cue, esq., in Augusta county, Virginia. The field of Mr. M'Cue's operations is on the north fork of North river. The indications are, that the supply is inexhaustible—the field seemingly extending over a large district of territory. The coal has been fully tested in the foundries of Staunton, and it is pronounced superior to either the Cumberland or Richmond coal.

Boy Col. Haymond was defeated in the Wheeling District-and so J. B. Clarke is turned out of his clerkship in the Interior Department. Cause and effect, they say. We think it would have been well to see the sort of hand he held before they turned Clarke out. Some folks would not like to hear the stories he can tell, and prove too!

A crabbed gentleman is Mr. Corwin. Nobody ever heard the like. He snaps everybody up, swears like a trooper, vows he is sick of politics, and has not read a newspaper for these three months. Oh! fie, Mr. Corwin! and Greer correspondence, in which he says of You were such a nice young man before you became a Secretary.

This was said to us by a kind friend this morning. He had mistaken the character of our paper. The Times is an independent sheet: it is not neutral. Neutrality means nothing. We are positively something and somebody, as the circulation of our paper indicates. To advocate political right, to expose official wrong and partisan corruption without reference to King Caucus or the behests of party, is the sort of independence we like and mean to exercise, Later from California.

The steamer Cherokee arrived at New York on Saturday evening with California dates to October 1st. She brings a very large number of passengers, and $2,200,000 in gold, and a very large mail.

The country remains quiet, and crime is so sel-dom heard of that a feeling of security pervades the community. Trade was comparatively dull, yet the miners never were doing better. of the capital. A terrible riot had occurred at Chagres beween the natives and some returned Californians. Many persons are said to have been killed, including some thirty or forty natives and a number of Californians. The messenger of Messrs. Adams & Co., with all their important despatches, was left behind; and it was feared that he had been killed by the natives. GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, November 3-12 m. Quite an excitement and a great disappointment occurred on Bridge street this morning. A loving couple had fled from the rigorous laws of Virginia, and from a more rigorous father, to our town, for the purpose of being made one flesh. The father missed her, and pursued them to this place; and seeing the carriage in which they came standing in front of the house of one of our preachers, he rushed in without ceremony. The daughter and betrothed fled and secreted herself, but all to no purpose; no hiding-place could e ade the eagle eye of the enraged father. Ha espied her, and immediately captured her and bore her back to his home, leaving the young man to console himself as best he could under his sad disappointment. Owing to some mistake about the license, the knot was not tied.
